HUB24 Invest

Issued: 29 April 2024

Issued by: HUB24 Custodial Services Ltd (ABN 94 073 633 664, AFSL 239 122) ('HUB24', the 'Operator', 'we', 'our' or 'us') as Operator and Custodian of the HUB24 Investor Directed Portfolio Service ('HUB24 Invest' or 'the Service').

We are writing to inform you of some changes to HUB24 Invest. Refer below for further information regarding the specific changes. There are no other changes to the Service, other than those stated in this notice and the Produce Update Notice.

You can view the changes detailed within the Product Update Notice, the information within it forms part of this material event notice.

Reduced input tax credits no longer apply on adviser fees

Following an update issued by the Australian Taxation Office ('ATO') HUB24 will no longer be able to claim Reduced Input Tax Credits ('RITCs') on adviser services fees on your behalf.

HUB24 currently claims a RITC on adviser service fees from the ATO, being 75% of the goods and services tax ('GST') on adviser fees and passes this benefit on to you.

As a result of the ATO notification, from 1 June 2024 onwards, the full 10% GST on any adviser services fees will be accrued on your account in the Service. As fees are collected monthly in arrears, this updated amount will be deducted from your account in July 2024 and apply thereafter.

Example

Where an investor has agreed to pay an advice fee of $110 per month (which includes GST of $10), that investor is currently paying $102.50 per month (which includes the benefit of a 75% RITC).

Following the implementation of this change, this investor will pay $110 (which includes GST of $10 being the full 10% GST, with no RITC).

Other disclosure updates

- The expense recovery fee has now been capped at $25 per quarter.
- The Service is now accessible to non-resident investors who receive the IDPS Guide in Australia.
- Updates to the managed portfolio service fee disclosure.
